

April 11, 1906

JAMES WESTOVER

James Westover, aged twelve, son of Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Westover, died late yesterday afternoon, at the home of his grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Holtz.

The boy had been sick for about two weeks. An abscess in the head, followed by typhoid fever, was the cause of death.

He was a bright little fellow, and a great favorite with all who knew him, both among relatives and at school. He was born at Milwaukee, Wis., and funeral announcements will not be made until it is learned whether or not Wisconsin relatives of the family will endeavor to be present.

His death is a great bereavement to all his relatives, and the cause of great sympathetic sorrow to their friends.